

Descendants of Thomas Frame - 2

The following was provided to me by Joanna Clark-Moore (my 3 cousin) around 2010. In 2009 she had found a detailed report on the descendants of Thomas Frame on the internet at www.rootsweb.ancestry.com and had printed out all 75 pages. However, she only copied and sent me the pages which were relevant to our line of descendants. At the beginning are two pages of her typewritten notes regarding our branch of the family. The handwritten notes on various pages are hers.

DESCENDANTS OF THOMAS FRAME

I found this on the internet, and there were 75 pages. I've included only the pages which apply to our ancestors. First you'll find 11 pages, which describe our direct ancestors from 4 generations: Thomas, James, David, and William. Thomas emigrated from England in 1669/70 as a bonded servant. He lived in Amesbury, MA. His son James was born in Amesbury and moved to Lancaster Co. PA, then Chester County, PA, and finally Augusta County, VA.

David Frame, son of James, was born in Lancaster County, PA, then moved to Chester County. David and his brother James were living in New London Township in Chester County when Julia Locke Frame Bunce began her genealogy. Ms. Bunce believed the Frames were Covenantors from Scotland who settled in Ireland before emigrating. I know the Frames were Presbyterian in the U.S.A., so it is likely the Frames had been Scots. I can't account for the facts above that Thomas Frame came from England. David Frame insisted on his Presbyterian faith when he married Catherine Miller, and she was disowned by the Quakers. They were married in Old Swedes Church in Wilmington, Delaware, and lived in New Garden Township until their deaths. David's brothers all moved to Virginia, and David is the only one to remain in the north.

[pp. 4 – 10 include siblings and children of James] William, son of James is on page 10/11. William was born in Chester County, PA. He married Rebecca Marsh, and they started life working in a grocery store. Next they moved to Downingtown, Pa, where they kept an inn. All of their 9 children were born in Downingtown. They moved to Baltimore and kept an inn there. In 1828/29 they traveled by covered wagon to Poland, OH, settling nearby in Struthers, Ohio. The parents died in 1842, and the children all left Struthers to find their separate ways, but they kept close attention to their siblings. Pages 26 – 30 tell the stories of the 9 Frame children, sons and daughters of William and Rebecca. Ruthanna Frame Kirtland is our ancestor. She was the first to marry, and she and Billius Kirtland lived in Poland, OH, all their lives.

William and Rebecca Frame left Baltimore, MD, in 1828 or 1829 to go by wagon with their 9 children and William and Rebecca's two brothers to seek their fortune in the Western Reserve of Ohio. They went over the mountains and first stopped at Poland, Ohio, where Ruthanna Frame met Billius Kirtland. They married and stayed in Poland, and the others eventually went on to Struthers, just north of Poland. Eliza was the oldest; then George followed. He'd married Jane Minder in Nassau, NY, and both joined the family on the move west. Ruthanna, who married Billius, came next, and then Thomas and Jannett. William, Jr., was next, followed by Mary, Rebecca, and Kate.

William, Sr., and Rebecca lived until 1842. Mary, Rebecca, and Kate were not married when their parents died so Mary moved in with Eliza; Rebecca with Ruthanna; and Kate with Jannett. The others were married.

Ruthanna and Billius Kirtland remained in Poland all their lives. Eliza married Albert Allen, and they moved to the new state of Iowa to break the sod and become farmers near Washington, Iowa. George and Jane had five children in Ohio and eventually went back to Nassau, NY. Thomas married Mary Bracken, and Thomas was justice of the peace for 18 years and then took over a farm near Washington, Iowa. Jannett married Dr. Dudley Allen, a brother of Albert Allen who had married Eliza. They lived in Kinsman, Ohio. William, Jr., who married Julia Baker, also went to Iowa and had a farm near Eliza. Rebecca married Marcellus Meacham who also bought a farm in Iowa. Of the Frame family there were four farms near Washington, Iowa.

During the Civil War Albert and William both went to war in Tennessee and both died. Thomas went to Iowa to farm William's acres, and he remained in Iowa and may have bought other land to raise sheep. Rebecca died after having a child, and Marcellus went to Ohio to find a mother for the baby. Marcellus asked Mary to be his wife, and they went back to Iowa and raised Rebecca's baby and three more of their own. The youngest Frame was Kate. She had lost her husband during the Civil War, and after the war nursed Jannett through a long illness until her death. Two years later she married Dr. Dudley Allen and became stepmother to Jannett's two children. It's interesting to notice how closely the Frame family stayed together.

was born in Augusta County, VA in 1745. He married Mary Donohue in Augusta County in 1762. In a short time, a scandal arose and David employed Thomas Jefferson to represent him in a suit against James Burnside, who had accused Frame of adultery with a widow, Elizabeth (Hanna) Botkin. On March 22, 1769 Mary (Donohue) Frame relinquished her dower to David, effectively divorcing him. He immediately married Elizabeth (Hanna) Botkin. Elizabeth, a daughter of James Jr. and Anne (Johnson) Hanna, was born in Ireland May 14, 1747 and died in KY September 22, 1796. She came to PA with her parents in the Spring of 1756.

In 1772, David and Elizabeth bought a farm on the Cowpasture River in present day Bath county, VA. They lived on this farm through the American Revolution. David served the Colonies as a Private in Captain McCreery's Augusta County Troops of the VA line.

In 1797, the family moved to Greenbrier County, VA and later to Little Levels. In 1801, they moved to Big Birch River, near the mouth of Powell's Creek, in present day Nicholas County WV. David died in Braxton County in 1810 and Elizabeth died in Kanawha County VA (WV) in 1830.

William and Rebecca Frame left Baltimore, MD, in 1828 or 1829 to go by wagon with their 9 children and William and Rebecca's two brothers to seek their fortune in the Western Reserve of Ohio. They went over the mountains and first stopped at Poland, Ohio, where Ruthanna Frame met Billius Kirtland. They married and stayed in Poland, and the others eventually went on to Struthers, just north of Poland. Eliza was the oldest; then George followed. He'd married Jane Minder in Nassau, NY, and both joined the family on the move west. Ruthanna, who married Billius, came next, and then Thomas and Jannett. William, Jr., was next, followed by Mary, Rebecca, and Kate.

William, Sr., and Rebecca lived until 1842. Mary, Rebecca, and Kate were not married when their parents died so Mary moved in with Eliza; Rebecca with Ruthanna; and Kate with Jannett. The others were married.

Ruthanna and Billius Kirtland remained in Poland all their lives. Eliza married Albert Allen, and they moved to the new state of Iowa to break the sod and become farmers near Washington, Iowa. George and Jane had five children in Ohio and eventually went back to Nassau, NY. Thomas married Mary Bracken, and Thomas was justice of the peace for 18 years and then took over a farm near Washington, Iowa. Jannett married Dr. Dudley Allen, a brother of Albert Allen who had married Eliza. They lived in Kinsman, Ohio. William, Jr., who married Julia Baker, also went to Iowa and had a farm near Eliza. Rebecca married Marcellus Meacham who also bought a farm in Iowa. Of the Frame family there were four farms near Washington, Iowa.

During the Civil War Albert and William both went to war in Tennessee and both died. Thomas went to Iowa to farm William's acres, and he remained in Iowa and may have bought other land to raise sheep. Rebecca died after having a child, and Marcellus went to Ohio to find a mother for the baby. Marcellus asked Mary to be his wife, and they went back to Iowa and raised Rebecca's baby and three more of their own. The youngest Frame was Kate. She had lost her husband during the Civil War, and after the war nursed Jannett through a long illness until her death. Two years later she married Dr. Dudley Allen and became stepmother to Jannett's two children. It's interesting to notice how closely the Frame family stayed together.
